

Dave Johnson is Wheeler Machinery's Certified Dealer Instructor and has 40 years' experience with machine operation and application. Dave assists Wheeler Machinery's salesman as well customers with machine application for different job sites. Dave also teaches a Caterpillar Certified Operator training where he helps customers raise the standard on their operators resulting in increased productivity and causing less damage to the machines as well as making sure the operator and machine are safer on the job.